Dear All

From participation to the commendable performance of our girls in sports, this quarter has been encouraging and eventful. I am happy to share that presently, 5 girls are representing at the national level and 25 girls at the state level sports championships. Many of our girls are excelling in sports and games like basketball, hockey, badminton and volleyball which is helping them to inculcate a sense of team spirit and leadership among themselves.

I am delighted to share that our founder Virender Sam Singh, have received Nexus of Good Award for his exemplary work in the field of education and empowerment of rural girls and women. Nevertheless, we would like to share the joy of participating in one of the events in the UK- The Asian Achievers Awards 2022 as the charity partner.

We have launched Aspirational Learning Clubs (ALCs) under Education Transformation Program, an interactive peer to peer self-exploratory learning platform to give further impetus to the learning curve of the girls and shaping them as the leaders of tomorrow.

We are grateful for the valuable support we get from all of you, which encourages us to put in relentless efforts in empowering rural girls and women. Let's continue taking determined steps toward this great journey. Join us in the quarter updates to know more about the activities!

Warm Regards
Archana Mukharji

ASIAN ACHIEVERS AWARDS

Pardada Pardadi Educational Society was nominated as the charity partner for The Asian Achievers Awards (AAA) held in UK on 23rd September 2022. The sister organization of PPES, the UK Chapter managed and organized the event and worked tirelessly to make this event a huge success.

PPES team members from USA and India joined the event along with PPES graduates Pinki and Sakshi, who are presently pursuing their higher education at New Jersey City University, US. Pinki shared her journey of empowerment from Anupshahr to United States. She received a standing ovation from the audience. Opportunity to showcase PPES work on such fundraising platforms, enables us to educate and empower rural girls and give their dreams wings to fly!

UK FUNDRAISER

After a 3-year gap, we are delighted to share that a fundraising lunch was organized by PPES, UK Chapter to support the education of rural girls.

The purpose of the event was to reconnect with our friends and donors, and to celebrate what the organization has managed to achieve during the last few years.

YOU CAN'T PUT A LIMIT ON ANYTHING

Pardada Pardadi takes pride in its sportsmanship spirit. Be it in the academic field or the sports our girls play. With this year, Pardada Pardadi expanded its focus on holistic development and the girls are also becoming more interested in aspects beyond academic education.

EVENTS

Gratitude Week

An event to thank and appreciate all those stakeholders, who has supported our girls to be a better version of themselves every day. It was a week filled with respect, love, laugh and tears of joy and many more!

It was a wonderful experience for me because the students made us proud and feel special by sharing their emotions and influence, they feel via the teachers. They not only showed their gratitude but were very happy to be part of PPES.

Anjali Agarwal- Teacher

I'm grateful to PPES for my journey, choices, setbacks, comeback, learnings, triumphs, and my growth. It's all worthy because I'm worthy of everything.

Ms. Tamanna, Class-8

I felt so happy seeing the students feeling thankful towards our course of work as drivers and other staff members. It was one of the best celebrations apart from being a part of PPES. The girls boosted our enthusiasm toward our work.

Mr. Sarvan- Bus Driver, PPES
